Article VI – Meetings

Section 1 – Required Meetings

The meetings of the District Committee shall be held as provided by law.

Section 2 – Reorganization

In every odd-numbered year, the District Committee shall meet on or before May 15 for the purpose of reorganizing at a site within the district boundaries designated by the existing Chairman. The day and hour shall be set by the existing Chairman. The Chairman shall provide 20 days published notice in the official county newspapers that make up District 15.

Section 3 – Redistricting

If redistricting of the Legislative Assembly requires reorganization under Century Code section 16.1-01-04, the District Committee shall reorganize under Article VI in a timely fashion to assure compliance with primary election filing deadlines.

Section 4 – Convention and Endorsing

In even-numbered years, the District Committee shall convene at a site within the district and at a time designated by the Chairman to elect delegates to the North Dakota Republican Party Convention. If it is an election year for the district's candidates for the Legislative Assembly, the District Committee shall convene at a site within the district and at a time designated by the Chairman to endorse candidates for election to the North Dakota Legislative Assembly. The endorsement of candidates may be accomplished at a meeting separate from the one at which delegates are elected. However, it shall take place before the statutory deadline for filing of petitions of candidacy for the Legislative Assembly.

Section 5 – Other Meetings

Other meetings of the District Committee may be held at the call of the chairman. Members of the District Committee shall be given notice via email 20 days prior to the meeting. Special meetings of the District Committee shall be called upon written request signed by two-thirds of the members of the District Committee, or by a two-thirds of the members of the Executive Committee and presented to the Secretary. Such meeting shall be within thirty days of such request. The purpose of a special meeting shall be stated in the notice of such meeting and no other business shall be transacted.

Section 6 – Open Meeting Rules

Meetings of the District and Executive Committees are not subject to North Dakota open meeting statutes. Any individual desiring to participate in meetings of District 15 may do so subject to verification of membership status. Digital recording and distribution are permitted.

Article VII – North Dakota Republican Party Convention

Section 1 – General Rules

As provided under Article VI Section 4, the Chairman shall call a meeting to elect delegates to the North Dakota Republican Party Convention. The District Committee shall elect qualified Delegates and Alternates in the quantity allowed by the North Dakota Republican Party.

Section 2 – Automatic Delegates

The current Executive Committee shall be automatic delegates from the District to the Republican State Party Convention.

Section 3 –Delegates and Alternates

1. The selection of delegates and alternates to the State Party Convention shall occur at a District Committee Meeting called for the purposes of electing delegates to the State Party Convention.
2. Individuals that desire to be nominated as a delegate, but unable to attend the delegate election meeting, must contact the Chairman prior to the meeting and express their interest in the nomination via email, text, or letter.
3. Individuals nominated from the floor and present at the meeting shall automatically be included in the ballot provided the nomination meets the requirements of the bylaws, and the individual's eligibility has been verified.
4. Balloting shall take place via a uniform printed ballot to be distributed to all voting members present. Names shall be placed on the ballot in the receipt of the nomination. Voting tellers shall be appointed by the Chairman to tally votes.
5. Delegates and alternates shall be elected by a plurality vote of those members present in order of votes received. The complete list of delegates and alternates will be provided to all Executive Committee members at the endorsing convention.

Section 4 – Vacancies after the Delegate Selection Meeting

Any remaining unelected delegate or alternate positions available after the Delegate Selection Meeting or any vacancies created by a delegate or alternate withdrawal shall be filled by the following process. The chairman will email all District members giving notification of the vacancies of Delegates. Anyone interested in being a delegate will be required to notify the chairman via email and the delegates will be approved in the order emails were received.

Article VIII – Procedures

Meetings and proceedings shall be governed by the most recent edition of Robert’s Rules of Order, except where inconsistent with these bylaws or North Dakota Law.

Article IX – Amendments

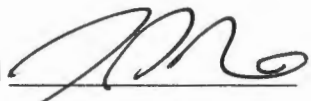

These bylaws may only be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members of the District Committee present at any regular or special meeting. Members of the District Committee shall be given electronic written notice of proposed amendments prior to such meeting and must be available for viewing 30 days prior to voting on them. Any member of District 15 may propose a bylaw change by submitting an electronic written proposal with a detailed description of those proposed changes. These proposals may be submitted to any Executive Committee member who will be responsible to bring it before the Executive Committee for consideration. If a proposed amendment submitted to the Executive Committee is not brought to the District Committee for a vote, the person proposing that amendment can force a vote on that amendment. To do this that person must secure the signatures of at least thirty verified members of the district. After this requirement has been satisfied, they must submit the signatures to the Executive Committee. The Chairman must present this amendment for a vote at the next annual meeting. Should the amendment fail, it cannot be brought for a vote a second time in this manner.

Article X – Bylaw Accessibility

The current version of District 15 bylaws will always remain accessible to the membership and available upon request from an Executive Committee member.

Article XI – State Statutes

The bylaws of District 15 Republican Party shall be in compliance with the North Dakota Century Code. If any conflicts arise between the North Dakota Century Code and these bylaws the North Dakota Century Code shall prevail.

Approved

District 15 Chairman: Jason Pierce

District Secretary: Renae Ahlberg
